

QUIZ: OBJECT FRAMING

BY ANNE VAZQUEZ

Fill in the blank with the terms provided. Answers are below.

1. If you would like to view an object or objects from all its sides, as well as the front, a(n) _____ frame is a viable option.
2. If you want to secure a book, magazine, or the like, without using adhesives or other restraints, one option is to create a(n) _____.
3. An item designed to fit into the back rabbet of a moulding and increase the depth within a shadow box is called a(n) _____.
4. A design method that entails creating a "window" that slants toward the viewer is called a(n) _____.
5. _____ is an adhesive known for its ability to create a strong bond and clear appearance, although not considered suitable for preservation framing.
6. In order to provide the "richer" dimension that framed objects often call for, many feel it's important to utilize _____ in the design.
7. When preservationally framing items containing metal, _____ like a musical instrument for example, it's important to use _____.
8. When an item needs to be accessible to the owner after being framed, a(n) _____ can be incorporated into the design.
9. A(n) _____ can be created from one piece of board to create the backing and four sides to line the inside of a shadow box.
10. If you want to make an acrylic box frame appear less contemporary, _____ can be added around the edges.

-
- A. Silicone glue
 - B. Trim moulding
 - C. Fabric, or other textured, matboard
 - D. Acrylic box
 - E. Quick box
 - F. Cove mat
 - G. Sink mat
 - H. Acrylic, or neutral mount, adhesives
 - I. Extender
 - J. Hinged door

Answers: 1.) D, 2.) G, 3.) I, 4.) F, 5.) A, 6.) C, 7.) H, 8.) J, 9.) E, 10.) B
