

Framing Focus

This Holiday Season, CONNECT WITH CUSTOM FRAMING

Looking for gifts deserving of the special people on your list? With custom framing, you have the freedom to give a gift tailored just for him or her. From a favorite painting to a collection of special items to an interesting mirror, there are many options for gift giving when custom framing is in the picture.

Perhaps you want to give a page from your scrapbook, or a collage you've made, that reflects a personal bond. You can have that grouping of special photos and items custom framed to create a wonderful piece of personal art. Bring in your collage and we will discuss the many options we can use to enhance these memories. Your creation can be housed in a great custom frame and given to the lucky person. Truly an impressive and touching gift!

And, if you have a collection of items but don't know exactly how to arrange them for maximum impact, call on us for help with the design. We will create a layout that conveys what you want to "say" and that will look great! Choose from the array of frames and selection of mat-board we stock to design a wonderful gift.

Preservation is especially important when framing sentimental items. From the inside out, we can include framing materials that will keep this special gift preserved for years to come. Ask us about the options.

Some other ideas...

- Frame a photo from holidays past.
- Frame a photo from a special time or place for the recipient.
- Frame a piece of artwork related to the holiday... something to celebrate the season. They can enjoy it each year.
- Or if you want to give the gift of art, but aren't sure exactly what to choose, a gift certificate for framing services will fit the bill.

Give a unique and personalized gift to those on your giving list this season. They deserve it! ■
